Philips Learning Center – anytime, anywhere

The Philips Learning Center offers flexible, continuing education (CE), designed around you and the changing needs of your department or facility. Hundreds of CE-approved learning activities provide the variety, quality, and depth of learning that you need, regardless of clinical focus or departmental role. Learning activities are available for nurses, radiologic technologists, sonographers, dosimetrists, and other healthcare professionals – with 95% participant satisfaction.

Online Education Accounts provide quick and easy access to over 600 online learning activities. Accounts of any size can be created – the more you buy, the more you save! Simply purchase an account online using a credit card and your account will be set-up automatically and you can begin using your bank of continuing education units (CEUs) immediately.

Account codes can be shared with your department, facility, or network. Access your account anytime by logging into the Philips Learning Center at www.theonlinelearningcenter.com.

Easy account set-up

Online Education Account set up is easy. Go to www.theonlinelearningcenter.com from the left menu navigation and select:

- Registration
- Buy Group Education Account. Choose the amount of CEUs for your account – the more you buy, the more you save – and purchase it with a credit card

If you are not registered, you will automatically be registered and will receive an email with instructions on how to get started.

Account access

You can provide any colleague access to your account simply by sharing the automated email you will receive. The email will guide you through the registration process and includes instructions to access your bank of credits. Find a learning activity with our many search options – by profession, category, modality, course title, key words, author, or choose new publications. Select a course and it will automatically be added to your learning activities and CEUs are deducted from your account.
